ACADEMY JAZZ ENSEMBLE

The AJE is a professional big band whose mission is to explore and preserve the music of America's original art form. Our repertoire spans from rare and historical big band works to some of the newest original music for contemporary jazz bands. Our music book represents the passion and poise this ensemble brings to the stage. This passion makes the Academy Jazz Ensemble a unique voice in the Jazz community.

BALANCED ROCK

BALANCED ROCK instrumentation includes the blend of acoustic and electric guitars, combined with the smooth vibe of the bass and drums, comprise the musical line up of the band. Balanced Rock takes their American musical roots and blends several genres to produce their twist on rock & roll, reminiscent of old school influences combined with new-age acoustic pop. The band's signature song, Ready to Roll, is a biographical depiction inspired by their drummer and his delight discovering the nuances of the percussion musical instrument called the Cajon, and his new set of challenges mastering the wooden box.
